MCMXLXIII Volume 63
 Number 15

Next Sunday is our annual Friends and Family Day. We will have a special guest speaker, followed by a fellowship dinner in the Vanzant Center. We always have one of our largest crowds on Friends and Family Day. Our congregation is a growing church family both in number and in love for God and our fellow man. The Friends and Family Day is a significant part of the strategy for growth and it begs for everyone to put forth the effort to help make it a success.

Family Retreat
 April 23-25
 For all families with children at home

Middle School Devotional
 Sunday night, May 2
 Home of Kevin and Dodie Caroland

This Wednesday night, we will begin a series in Refuge called "Let's Talk About Sex." We had a parents meeting on this series last Sunday and I greatly appreciate all those who were in attendance. I had a special handout for our parents—if you didn't get one, come see me. If you are a teen, I hope you will be planning to join us. If you are a parent of a teen, I hope you will encourage your child to come. This may be one of the most important series we ever have. I am open to any questions, comments, and suggestions as we begin this and as always, I solicit your prayers! Once again, we will begin the series this Wednesday, April 14 at 7:00 PM!

Our annual family retreat is only two weekends away on April 23-25 at Camp Hy-Lake. It's not too late to sign-up and join us! All families with children at home and young couples, as well as 6th-12th graders, are invited to attend. Sign-up on the children's board!
