MCMXLXII Volume 62
 Number 42

Out Of The Blue: Thank you for allowing Elaine and me to vacate. It was good to be gone and even better to return home. Saturday (a week ago) we received a phone call from Decatur, IL. A classmate from Stephen Decatur High was trying to locate a Howard Edison Boggess, me. I hadn't heard anything from Decatur since I left in 1965 a week after graduating. I did return to work in the summer of '66 but the work carried me to Wisconsin and Michigan. I returned again in '70 when my dad died. But other than that I have had no contact. Of course, that is my fault for the most part. So I was shocked when I got the call and invitation to a school reunion next year. Lord willing, I'll go. As I thought about it, I wondered how many voices from the past could call out of the blue. Many I would welcome. Last year I received an email out of the blue. It was from a brother whom I had influenced in my very first work in Nashville. But are there voices from the past that I would not welcome? We need to live so as to never fear a call out of the blue!

Rumors: Have you heard the latest? Very likely you are better off if you haven't! If you have, "be quick to hear, slow to speak". True or untrue, speak only that which leads to edification.

Two Very Successful Events: First, in my absence the All-In-One Youth Emphasis was a great day. 466 were in attendance at worship and a large number returned for the singing. Positive comments have been abundant. Evidently the response for extra food for the many visitors was met with an overflow of excellent variety. Second, the Trunk-or-Treat was also a huge success. Little goblins and ghosts and various other tricksters were met with plenty of trunks and treats, enough to fill their bags to the brim.

Time Change: I hope you remembered. I am always afraid I will forget and show up at the wrong time. One time I did, but fortunately I was early instead of late.

Thanks to everyone who made Youth Day such a wonderful success. I hope you were as uplifted by the day as I was: the singing was beautiful, the messages from David Skidmore were inspiring, the food was plentiful, and the FHU Ambassadors' performance was top-notch. We had a great number of visitors, both young and old. However, though it was an inspiring and uplifting day for us, it is most notable that we gathered together so that God could be praised!

Thanks also to everyone for making our annual Trunk or Treat such a success. This is always a great event for our young families. Check out some Trunk or Treat photos on page 3!

Refuge will be back in its normal time slot this Wednesday! We are going through the Sermon on the Mount in a series called "He Said What?!" Please join us this Wednesday night at 7:00 PM. You will be blessed!
